Montana law provides:

45-7-210. False claims to public agencies. (1) A person commits an offense under this section if he purposely and knowingly presents for allowance or for payment any false or fraudulent claim, bill, account, voucher, or writing to any public agency, public servant, or contractor authorized to allow or pay claims presented to public agencies if genuine.

(2) (a) Except as provided in subsection (2) (b), a person convicted of an offense under this section shall be fined not to exceed $500 or imprisoned in the county jail for a term not to exceed 6 months, or both.

(b) If false or fraudulent claims are submitted purposely and knowingly as part of a common scheme or if the value of the claim or the aggregate value of all claims exceeds $300, a person convicted of an offense under this section shall be fined not to exceed $10,000 or imprisoned in the state for a term not to exceed 10 years, or both.

17-8-231. Liability for false claims. (1) A person who knowingly presents or causes to be presented a false, fictitious, or fraudulent claim for allowance or payment to any state agency or its contractors forfeits the claim, including any portion that may be legitimate, and in addition is subject to a penalty of not to exceed $2,000 plus double the damages sustained by the state as a result of the false claim, including all legal costs.

(2) The forfeiture and the penalty may be sued for in the same suit.
